Steps in the Teacher Preparation Program Application Process

1. Speak with your advisor concerning your academic and career interests. Make an appointment with the Program in Education office if you would like to meet with an education advisor.
2. Explore the Program in Education website (educationprogram.duke.edu) and come by the Program in Education Office (213 West Duke Building) if you have any questions. Review the information carefully to determine if you wish to apply.
3. Set up an individual conference to discuss your interest. During this conference you can discuss the program requirements, goals of the program, and application process.

For Elementary (K-6) contact Dr. Jan Riggsbee, jrigg@duke.edu, (919) 660-3075
For Secondary (9-12) contact Dr. Martin Smith, mps51@duke.edu, (919) 660-3081

4. Complete and submit this digital application. Applications are accepted on a rolling basis and as space allows. You are encouraged to apply in the spring of sophomore year when you declare your major.

5. Ask a faculty member (ideally in your major) to complete your Letter of Recommendation. https://duke.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV\_4TosYdAyiG7UUFD

6. After your application materials have been reviewed, you will have an individual interview with the Program Admissions Committee. Interviews will be scheduled within one month of receipt of your application. After your interview, you will be notified whether you have been accepted as a candidate for teacher licensure.

7. Graduates of the Elementary Teacher Preparation Program (ETPP) or the Secondary Teacher Preparation Program (STPP) are eligible for teacher licensure in North Carolina and in most other states through reciprocity.
