

“As someone who values education and has a passion for social change, I see the Certificate in Civic Engagement and Social Change as a way to deepen both.”

- Lina Palancares T'18

Lina's Certificate Pathway

Gateway Course

Two electives

- Latino/a Voices in Duke, Durham and Beyond
- Civil Rights Movement

Two experiential activities

- DukeEngage Tucson
- SAF Solidaridad Internship

Capstone + ePortfolio

For more information:

educationprogram.duke.edu/ccesc

Do good work well.

Earn a Certificate in Civic Engagement & Social Change.

LEARN

Take classes in Political Science, Public Policy, Documentary Studies, Cultural Anthropology, Philosophy, Education, Spanish, History and others that match your interests and meet certificate requirements.

CONNECT

Work with faculty and community leaders on an issue you care about. Build skills with a nonprofit or government agency. Experiences like DukeEngage, DukeImmerse, Bass Connections and ARAC count!

REFLECT

Ask hard questions. Is service always a good thing? What role do I want to play in my community? How do I want to be in the world? Record your answers and track your progress on your e-portfolio.

Apply online: goo.gl/8jO6ux

Fall/Spring Deadlines: Oct 30 / Mar